

Ramblin' 'Round

I see where the press agent for Dave Bird slipped when he failed to include Lemon Grove and Spring Valley in the territory. Supervisory District 2, which has been so ably represented by Dave Bird for the past four terms, with another in prospect.

Announcement of Bird's candidacy for re-election as supervisor in the second district was "revealed" in Wednesday's Tribune. "The district generally embraces Coronado, National City, Chula Vista, South Bay and border areas, La Mesa and El Cajon." No harm has been done, however, as Dave Bird announced his intention to run again in the LEMON GROVE REVIEW and SPRING VALLEY BULLETIN some time ago.—D. H.

Each time I pass the former Lemon Grove Packing House I note that several more panes of glass have been knocked out of the sky lights in the building, next to the railroad tracks.

The lady in the glass store, where the REVIEW used to live, told me some time ago when I went to get a glass for a picture frame, that glass of any kind is scarce and hard to get.

Somewhere told me recently that the school maintenance and repair department had to put in 3900 panes of glass last summer.

If the kids with an itch to throw rocks would just throw 'em and not bust windows, it would help conserve the glass supply.

Too much to expect, I guess.—D. H.

Lemon Grove is a milepost in Wetback Lane and the border patrol keeps a wary eye out in this community. About once a month they swoop down on likely looking "Mexican" who they usually find sweeping the parking area in front of the post office. Deliberately and calmly the "wetback" suspect digs out his wallet and shows his credentials. He is Stephen Cuero, a full blooded Indian, the most American of them all.—M. G.

Hospital Auxiliary Fair Date Is Saturday

One of the gala events of the season for foothills communities, the third annual benefit country fair, sponsored by Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary, will be held Saturday. It will be held on the Quad of Grossmont High School, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. There will be no entrance charge.

The fair will combine many "carnival" features that attract children, with a variety of desirable hand-sewn items; home-baked pies, cakes, breads, etc.; home-made candy; as well as home-canned and fresh produce of the region—all at reasonable prices; valuable merchandise prizes galore, given out every hour on the hour, with grand prizes at closing time—climaxed by a baked ham dinner, complete with dessert and beverage. The dinner will be served buffet style 5-7 p.m. at $1 donation per plate; child's plate 50c.

Proceeds of the fair will be used to purchase a patient-admitting addressograph and graphotype for Grossmont Hospital.

John Tullinger, 94-year-old doctor:

"If you really want to stay healthy, you should exercise regularly, trust in God, wear out your pants in the knees instead of the seat — and make people pay cash."

Elementary and High Schools To Hold Board Elections

Area residents will vote for trustees at the High School and Elementary Schools level Friday, May 18.

Polling places will be elementary schools in each of the districts. Polls will be open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Two Golden Ave. School Boys Bring Home Bacon in Newspaper Marbles Competition

Michael Stegall, 11 years, live at 7644 Church street.

Victor Jacobson, 11 years old, lives at 7456 Pacific Avenue.

Thursday afternoon, the Lemon Grove Marbles Championship for 1956 was settled by Victor Jacobson, an 11 year old fourth grader at Golden Avenue School, and incidentally over all champion marble shooter, and Michael Stegall, 11 years old, a fifth grader in the same school.

Each winner will receive a golden trophy, donated by the LEMON GROVE REVIEW. These cups, suitably engraved, will be kept by the boys, and a larger cup will be retained by the school, with the boys' names engraved, and names of future winners of annual contests engraved thereon.

The winners were tied right up to the last shot, and two officials had difficulty in keeping the enthusiastic crowd of schoolmates back far enough from the ring to allow the contestants to lag for first shot and shoot at the mids in the ring.

Mike Stegall was fortunate in having his girl friend hold his coat when the contest for overall winner warmed up, but Victor Jacobson won out, without a coat-holder.

Victor Jacobson lives at 7456 Pacific Avenue, and Michael Stegall lives at 7644 Church Street.

The losers were not losers altogether because Clyde Hayden, manager of the Grove Theatre gave six tickets to the runners-up. Hayden volunteered the tickets after reading about the tourney in this paper.

This contest is an annual affair and the boys work hard for the prizes. A lot of pressure is put on the boys in the finals, and more room for them to play should be allowed. Breathing down the players' necks is not conducive to accurate shooting.

Athletic Director Louis Poluzzi and his assistant Mike Calderone were on hand for the finals, and tried to keep back the spectators.

Men's Club Hears About Heroes, Hiways and Politics

A triple program was offered Friday at the Lemon Grove Men's Club and it was varied as well as interesting.

The first Community Recognition Award was made by the club. It went to James Sanchez, a Lemon Grove fireman who saved the life of a 4-year-old youngster last month by prompt application of an inhalator and other treatment, which the La Mesa Hospital receiving ward credited with being "the difference between life and death" for the youngster. Ray Purtee, club vice president who is also head of the committee, made the presentation. Fire Chief Hensley also added words of praise for Sanchez' actions.

The Club also heard members of the California Division of Highways tell of plans for the future for Broadway. Jacob Dekema and J. F. Jorgensen, engineer and assistant engineer of the district respectively had turned over the Euclid-to-College strip to the community via the Grove Chamber of Commerce just an hour earlier. Harry Griffen, head of the Broadway Improvement State, who knew they were Association which seeks to widen upon to speak were in accord with the necessity for improving Broadway if Lemon Grove business life was to continue to thrive.

William Shearer, Republican candidate for Assemblyman, 77th District made a thought-provoking talk on the California State Water Project, state and federal taxes and the need for reduction thereon, and he also said that no community injury should be allowed to result from state projects and that if such actions were detrimental to the community, he was against it.

Shearer's opponent, S. Hegland, also invited, did not attend the meeting.

Louis Peeylon, superintendent of Grossmont Hospital will be speaker this Friday to help mark National Hospital Week.

All men are invited to attend. Meeting will be held at 12 noon at Michael's.

REAL INDIANS TO LEAD 'POOL' PARADE

The Ha-Yo-Ka Artists, Indians all, will have an important part in the Lemon Grove Swimming Pool Carnival to be held this week at St. John of the Cross Church Rodeo Grounds.

Represented are bona fide members of the Sioux, Iroquois, Cherokee, Choctaw, Chickasaw, Blackfoot and Kiowan tribes. Several of the members have appeared in movies, all are professional performers. Proceeds from the carnival will go into the swimming pool fund.

Most eyes, ears and pocketbooks of the area will be aimed at the Lemon Grove Swimming Pool Carnival Friday and Saturday at St. John of the Cross Church Rodeo Grounds.

The carnival will swing open its gates at 5 p.m. Friday. At 7 p.m. a parade will start down Broadway from Vista St. and end at the rodeo grounds.

Mrs. Carl Piepenbrink, president of the Swimming Pool Association, said that informational pamphlets would be distributed at the carnival. The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

Earlier this year one of our school board trustees said that a paper had been read at one of the interminable county board meetings that made him question his ability to continue to serve on the board. The matter in point consisted of 21 questions and we went to considerable trouble to obtain a copy of them.

Since then, a copy of them has been mailed out by our high school district and I hope other editors will give these questions wide-spread dissemination. This topic is particularly apropos because there will be both high school and elementary school board elections Friday, May 18. These questions are so searching that there can be no mistake in judgement in casting your vote if you use this check list as a guide.

Here are the questions:

1. Has the candidate an unselfish interest in the public schools, the community, and in every child?
2. Has he a position of recognized leadership in the community?
3. Is the position being sought for personal prestige or political gain?
4. Is he a leader in his own occupation or community group?
5. Is he a known quantity?
6. Is he able to think independently and objectively about a problem?
7. Will he accede cheerfully to the decisions of the majority?
8. Does his record indicate he will represent the district as a whole rather than identifying himself with a particular group, cause, or geographical area?
9. Will he develop unity among the members of the board, contributing to harmonious development of the program?
10. Will he give the necessary time to this important position?
11. Can he recognize and distinguish the jurisdictional power and functions of the board and

LESSON-SERMON SUBJECT 'MORTALS AND IMMORTALS'
 In the Lesson-Sermon on "Mortals and Immortals" given Sunday in all Christian Science churches, it will be illustrated how mortality can be discarded for immortality by following the example and words of Christ Jesus.

The Apostle John records in Revelation (7:13, 14) that one of the elders asked, "What are these which are arrayed in white robes?" Later he answered, "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

Repeated financial advice: The year 1956 is a good year in which to save some money even if no depression develops.

'Yes' Vote Urged For Colorado Water Supply Line

R. M. Levy, president of the Helix Irrigation District and director of the S. D. County Water Authority, will serve as chairman for the area in a campaign for voting yes of Proposition W in the June 5 election.

W is a no-tax-increase measure for financing completion of the Colorado River Aqueduct. It would authorize the Metropolitan Water District to issue $50 million in short term notes which would be picked up from inclusion fees yet to be collected. These fees, it is estimated, will amount to $170 million over the next 30 years.

The Helix district has been taking all of the water available through the County Water Authority's aqueduct which taps the Colorado River Aqueduct near San Jacinto. Levy said additional water could come only from a second aqueduct to the county but water would not flow into it until the Colorado Aqueduct is brought up to full size.

Southern California exported goods valued at $449 million to 108 nations last year.

Fanita Ranch Sold To Los Angeles Developers

Fanita Ranch, with 4000 acres of land ready for development, is reported to have been sold to a Los Angeles firm of developers, at a price of $1,000,000.

This interesting and as far as we know, previously unannounced deal, was revealed by Rex Hall of El Cajon, at the meeting of the Citizens Advisory Council on Monday evening, April 30. Bob Rundell, director of the irrigation district, also attending the meeting, remarked that he had heard about the projected sale six months ago, but had not known that the deal had jelled.

Fanita Ranch is situated on the north side of San Diego River below Santee and east of the old Padre Dam, sometimes called Old Mission Dam.

Sixty years ago, when I went to school with Hosmer McKoon (his father owned Fanita Ranch at that time), there was just the one ownership.

The Union Title Insurance and Trust Co. reported there are many owners now, which may cause delay in announcing the sale of the rancho.—D. H.

Hams to Be Ruffled For Pony League Benefit

The Women's Auxiliary of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley held a meeting at the Spring Valley Jr. High for the purpose of raising funds for improvement of a baseball field for the league. Three hams are being raffled off May 27. The tickets are 10c each and are being sold by the league boys. You will be helping a worthy cause, and you may win a ham.

Four organized teams turned out for practice at the Lemon Grove Jr. High Saturday, April 28. We have some promising players, and we hope that you can all be out to see their brand of baseball talent for a double-header game scheduled for May 27 at the Lemon Grove Jr. High field.

SAM YORTY TO SPEAK AT LOCAL DEMO RALLY

County Democrats are invited to gather in the Golden Avenue School, Lemon Grove, Monday evening, May 14, at 8 p.m. to meet with former Congressman Sam Yorty (D-Los Angeles), who is seeking the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate.

Yorty's voting record in Congress and state legislature shows he supported better pay for postal employees, was a leader in the protection and conservation of California's water rights; justice for veterans, flood control, price supports for farmers, equal opportunities for all races, creeds and color, and measures representing the small business man, the unemployed and the aged, making it possible to have their voices heard in Congress. In addition to his combat assignments during the war, he assisted in re-establishment of government in the Philippines and in reopening the first schools after liberation on the Island of Leyte.

Meeting is being arranged by Henry Cramer, Mrs. Ruth Daniel Parker, Mrs. Chas. McKenzie and Leo Latimer.

Assisting in Yorty's campaign here are representatives of the group known as "Californians for Yorty" and include Fred Peterson, Bert Vaughn, Phyllis Haas, Charlotte Phillips, Olen Keith Jr., Vioria Woempner, Louella Bowen, Matthew Gorry, Sue Dore, Mary Sotello, Lee Compton, Mrs. Edith Baxter, Mrs. Nettie Tucker, Bird Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Caldwell, and Mr. and Mrs. William Doughman.

Jack Thompson to Head Next Community Chest Campaign

John D. (Jack) Thompson Jr., president of San Diego Federal Savings and Loan Association, has been named campaign chairman for the 1956 United Success Drive. This fall, it was announced today.

His responsibilities include recruiting and directing the more than 15,000 volunteers who will work in the campaign for funds for 50 Red Feather services united in a single appeal.

Last year's campaign raised $1,575,000 which was 17.5 per cent over the previous year.

Thompson, a native San Franciscan, came to San Diego when he was a year old. He attended San Diego and Coronado schools. Thompson has served on the budget committee of the San Diego Area Community Chest, and for the past two years has been a vice-chairman in the Commerce and Industry division of the United Success Drive.

In addition to being the chairman of the Operating Committee of the Salvation Army USO, he is a director of the Chamber of Commerce, the Hillside Hospital and the Fiesta del Pacifico.

He is also chairman of the Mission Bay Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce; member of the executive committee of the advisory committee for the State Senate Interim Committee on Subdividing and Land Planning; member of the Building and Finance Committee of the United States Savings and Loan League; and member of the Building and Finance Committee of the California Savings and Loan League.

Virgil Stevens Elected President

Virgil Stevens, president of the local Culligan Soft Water Service Co. at 3515 Olive St., was elected president of the Western Association of Soft Water Service Operators at Bakersfield Friday.

The meeting was attended by Culligan Soft Water operators from nine western states and all phases of water softening was discussed at the two day meeting.

Officials of the parent company, Culligan Inc., were present and it was brought out that over 1400 franchised operators were now servicing in excess of three million softeners nationwide.

The local facilities are currently being expanded to include all types of water conditioning equipment, according to Stevens.

LOCAL MAN SPONSORS REFUGEE FAMILY FROM HOLLAND

By DICK HENDERSON
Sixty-five years ago a common reply to the question "What's new?" was "the Dutch have captured Holland." That was funny for a long time, until Kaiser Wilhelm moved in and claimed sanctuary—then the "Dutch" really captured Holland. At that time Germans were commonly termed "Dutchmen."

A couple of weeks ago, culminating efforts and arrangements by local lumberman Fred Ward and a La Mesa church, that have been in progress since last September, a real Dutch family, from de Haag, in Holland, arrived in La Mesa, via air.

This family, consisting of a man, wife and two children, left Rotterdam, came to New York by steamer and from New York to San Diego by air, all transport expense paid by the Dutch government.

The La Mesa Methodist Church, working through their organization in Europe, made arrangements to sponsor a Dutch refugee family. Mrs. Henrietta Black of La Mesa Methodist Church, wrote dozens of letters, signed many papers, sponsoring a family. The church asked for a family with not more than two children, the man to be a carpenter or wood worker. This because the job sponsor was Fred Ward, head of Ward Lumber Co., and he offered a job in his lumber yard.

The happy result of all the correspondence and sponsoring was the arrival of Pieter de Niet, with his wife Anna Maria, daughter Marion, 4 years, and son Pieter Jr., ten months.

The Methodist Church secured a house at 4405 Parks Street, La Mesa, re-furnished it, partly from donations, partly from purchases, and everything spic and span, ready to move into, and the rent paid for a month.

The father, Pieter de Niet, went right to work at Ward's

Lumber Yard. He is a carpenter and cabinet maker, worked as designer of radio cabinets in Holland, and his fellow employees say he is a good worker and knows his stuff.

Little Marion was the center of interest at Sunday School on her first appearance, but as her knowledge of English is almost nil, she didn't have much to say. Pieter and Anna Maria both speak considerable English, having studied for six months. Pieter says he couldn't find a teacher for American, only English. Thinks American is mostly slang. The family lived in one room on the second floor of a tenement before leaving Holland. Pieter was in a forced labor camp in Germany for a long period, and welcomed the change to even one room with his family.

There were 400 refugee families in the settlement where the de Niets lived, and luckily for all concerned, Pieter met the specifications of the sponsors.

So, after nearly six months of correspondence, the Methodist Church of La Mesa welcomed this little family to their new home, completely furnished, and with a good job for the father, so that he will be independent and all set to become an American citizen.—D. H.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS--

THEY'LL TELL YOU WHY THEY'RE CHANGING TO

ELECTRIC COOKING

All over this area, more and more of your neighbors are changing — changing from the old fashioned way to modern-day electric cooking.

Ask your neighbors, and they'll tell you why. Chances are, they'll say they changed because electric cooking is faster... because it's cleaner... because it's easier to control... because the operating cost is low and the efficiency is high. And they're sure to point out many, many more of the advantages of electric cooking.

So... ask your neighbors. Or, better still, find out for yourself. See your appliance dealer now and ask him to demonstrate all the wonderful things an electric range can do for you.

COUPLES CLUB HAS HILARIOUS TIME AT FRIENDSHIP HALL

Hattie Carnegie, Beware! Lilly Dache, look to your laurels! Recently the Couples Club of the Lemon Grove Congregational Church had such a display of originals as would make the most imaginative chapeau designer sigh with envy.

Members, instructed to design headgear to represent song titles, came up with creations representing Mairzy Dots, Some of These Days, I Ain't Got No Body, and many other perennial favorites.

After a guessing period, most of the hats were identified correctly. However, Dan Apra, Marian Norman, Jack and Margaret Durham had to "tell on theirs." While most of these titles were obvious once we knew, one of the ladies really had used a s-t-r-e-t-c-h of the imagination in designing hers.

The games, one of which required wifely to choose hubby while blindfolded by feeling his and several other noses, kept Friendship Hall rocking with hilarity.

Before leaving for the evening, it was decided it was selfish to keep our rare creations to ourselves but we decided to display them to the general public. The following morning they were the talk of the coffee hour at church.

We expect many of the admirers of our handiwork to join in the fun at our next meeting which will be held at the hall on the fourth Saturday, May 26.

Chamber of Commerce OKs Incorporation Study

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce voted 6 to 2 last week to investigate the feasibility of incorporating Lemon Grove into a sixth class city with the study being conducted under the wing of the chamber.

A lengthy resolution was offered by Postmaster Frenchy Faucher as a private citizen in which the study was asked. He proposed that the chamber obtain three members from each club, group and organization in the community for the study purpose. Faucher said that there were 30 organizations in Lemon Grove.

The study, presumably, would

Russian Radio Discovers Crockett As an American Reactionary

By HENRI I. LELEU

Second Part

In the first installment concerning Russian radio, Mr. Leleu told how "Dixieland" with a southern drawl and similar Americanisms were used to give U. S. coloration to Radio Moscow stories.

Recently, I heard a communist commentator broadcasting a tirade against a fellow American named "David Crockett" over which I am still laughing. After telling his listeners that this "scoundrel" had been eulogized in song, and American youth made to dress ridiculously resembling his warring uniform, the announcer said, "... and as long ago as that, this tool of the eastern industrialists ravaged and killed the native Indians, as he relentlessly pushed westward to gain new territory, rich in minerals and agricultural lands..."

Not knowing much more about "Davy" than he "killed a bar by the time he was three," I glued my ears to the radio. "... the Indians were a friendly, peaceful people" the commentator continued, "content to live their simple life, planting corn and tending their farm animals, but this David Crockett who has been eulogized in song, with greed and lust for financial gain, destroyed this native Indian race to a point where today they are nothing more than a mere curiosity on exhibition in a circus."

Being sympathetic towards the plight of the American Indian, and having lived in Oklahoma once, where the Osage Indians enjoy great wealth from oil royalties and live in mansions and drive Cadillacs, I continued to listen to this hilariously distorted commentary.

The announcer continued as "soft background music played. "The Indian Love Call." North America originally belonged to several solidified tribes of American Indians," he said.

"It was their native land, founded by them centuries before Columbus allegedly 'discovered' it in the name of Spain. It was Indian territory, the land of their fathers, and their fathers before them, and it is a pity that history cannot record that they had the strength and ammunition to ward off the unprovoked attacks of this reactionary—David Crockett."

This lesson in American history was too good to miss. I continued to listen attentively. "If the Indians had had the strength of repelling Crockett's invasions" the commentator said, "today the American Indians would be another friendly nation, linked with in peace, freedom and friendship."

After listening to this 15-minute commentary, I decided that surely not even the communist writers are serious and surely this program was intended as a humorous satire. I've decided that communist comedians like this commentator are truly very funny men and Bob Hope and Jerry Lewis had better watch out, or else their Hooper ratings (at least in Europe) will be slipping in deference to the new type of communist funnymen who provide so many laughs for us in Europe.

On the other hand, if the communists had not intended this as a "funny" then I could not help but think what a troop of American Boy Scouts would have done to this announcer, if they had heard this tirade against their hero and could have gotten their candy-stained hands on this guy. I know the fur in their Davy Crockett hats would be standing at "attention" as their bubble gum smacked a resounding crescendo of "attack," and Walt Disney would have another real life episode to televise in the adventures of Davy Crockett.

LOCAL VOCALISTS IN AZTEC CONCERT

Lairsey, first soprano, both of Lemon Grove, will sing with the Aztec Concert Choir, presenting its first free spring performance Tuesday, May 15, at 8:15 p.m. in the music auditorium, San Diego State College. J. Dayton Smith, chairman of the music department, will direct the 64-voice choir in 17 numbers.

Do You Want to Be Beautiful?

Modern living takes its toll of women's beauty. Complexion marred by dryness, ugly lines, clogged pores and loss of "bloom" are the result of life today with its hurry and tension. It's inescapable dust, fumes and drying climatic conditions.

Now, however, cosmetic scientists have found a way to help women in their quest for complexion loveliness. Twenty-one years of research have culminated in BEAUTY QUEST, a perfectly balanced "moisturizing" treatment for dry or aging skin.

After one application of BEAUTY QUEST you will know the pride and poise that comes with looking your very best. Take the mirror test and see! There is nothing so satisfying as seeing one's own beauty revived.

To bring this new technique to you, come to the Special Purpose Food Shop. Ask Mrs. Carlton for an appointment for a free facial and skin analysis, and to explain the four steps to a radiant complexion. Youthful looking skin can be prolonged for years.

Special Purpose Food Shop is located at 7894 Broadway, opposite Sproule-Reitz in Lemon Grove. S&H Green Stamps and free literature are given. For information phone HO 9-3329.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I want to extend my thanks to you for the excellent coverage you gave us in regard to the Youth Center Variety Show. I feel that your cooperation in publicizing the event was the main factor in making it the tremendous success that it was.

A great big thank you should also go to all participants and their parents, without them there could have been no show. Phil Titmas and his crew of stage hands deserve a lot of credit for the assistance rendered. Robert Snow who emceed the production in a competent manner.

Also appreciated was the loyal support and help given me by Misses Fay Walsh, Mildred Fiestner, Marie Howell, and Gladys Kranch. Also Jim Poole, Tom Warburton, Paul Reynolds and Frank Armstrong. Not to be forgotten are the people who prepared and sold coffee and lemonade during intermission.

I feel that it was a great pleasure to work on this project for the youth of Lemon Grove and gratifying to have the community lend such great support.

Margaret Perkins
 Chairman, Youth Center Variety Show

Dear Editor:

The sincere thanks of the entire Roller Derby staff goes to you and the employees of the REVIEW and BULLETIN which were utilized to publicize the special "Lemon Grove Nite" which was held at Mission Beach Arena on April 26.

The help of the Lemon Grove Jr. Chamber of Commerce and the citizens of that locality was typical of the splendid effort of proud citizens throughout the U.S.

Your selection of a charming young lady to represent Lemon Grove was superb, and television fans and those who regularly attend Roller Derby are still talking about her genuine beauty and personality.

May we take this opportunity to invite you or any members of your staff to visit us as guests of Roller Derby at your convenience, regardless of our location in Southern California.

Most sincerely,
 Chuck Downing

 San Diego Roller Derby

The charming young lady with the "genuine beauty and personality" is Constance Kratz, who attained the first rung of the ladder of beauty fame by being elected Miss Lemon Grove and Spring Valley last week at the Lions Club sponsored Fairfest of the Fair competition. She's not only pretty but she's smart. She completed her studies at Helix High School this year after a little more than three years of study and she graduated with honors. She's 17.

V.L.M. PTA Meeting Postponed 'Til May 31

The May meeting of the Vista La Mesa Parent-Teacher Association, scheduled for tonight, May 10, has been postponed until May 31. This change was made because the president elect is attending the convention of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers Association at Sacramento.

Mrs. Bullock is one of 208 delegates who will represent Ninth District CPCT at Sacramento. The theme of the convention is "Our Investment in America—Strengthening Communities."

Victims of Car Crash Still in Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Russell "Tooze" of 2892 Cypress Ave., Lemon Grove, who were seriously injured in a car collision on Montezuma Road near State College April 11, are still in Mercy Hospital. Mr. Tooze is 54, and is a teacher at Horace Mann Junior High School.

Driver of the other car was the late Wallace F. Dryden, an engineering student at State. His passenger who was also killed, was a student at State. A coroner's jury voted that negligent driving by Dryden, after hearing evidence he was intoxicated at the time of the collision.

Investigation of drunk driving in San Diego County is under consideration by the county grand jury, its foreman, Col. Waldron J. Cheyney, USA, said. Col. Cheyney said the grand jury will consider recommendations of its public safety committee "and hear witnesses if necessary."—D.H.

First Link of Lemon Grove Freeway Opened

The first section of the four section Lemon Grove Freeway was officially opened Friday at 11 a.m. in a short program on the freeway at College Avenue. Jacob Dekema and J. F. Jorgensen, State Division of Highways District Engineers, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Atkinson, of the road construction firm, and T. G. Hawley, works project superintendent, David Bird, County Supervisor, all took part in releasing the road officially.

Later, many of the group attended a luncheon at Michael's where Dekema announced that Broadway would be "cleaned up" before it is returned to the county. He said that no rights-of-way and no curbs nor gutters would

Water Works Citizen's Committee Mulls Site Location

The Citizens Advisory Committee met Monday evening at water works office.

Chief item of business was selection of an appraiser to set the value of the present office building and the lot formerly used by the district shops, before said shops were moved to El Cajon.

Present were Chairman Ray Grable, Norman Lighthart, Fire Chief Ray Lyles, Rex Hall, El Cajon pioneer, Harry Griffin, Lemon Grove's representative on the water works board, Bob Rundell, Grossmont and Mt. Helix representative on the same board, Byron Miller, business manager of the water works, Mrs. Gross, secretary, who took down all the remarks made and ran out of paper.

Mr. Hall gave a terse account of El Cajon's desires to have the main office of the district located in El Cajon, but was willing to concede that La Mesa had a large claim to keep the office in La Mesa.

Ray Lyles, fire chief of La Mesa, thought the matter of location had been settled in September, 1954, when the district moved the shops to El Cajon.

Byron Miller said the district's 125 employees were divided as to residence, about 85 living in El Cajon and 40 in La Mesa, the latter being office employees.

Mr. Lighthart acted as chairman of the "location" committee, seemed to favor La Mesa but was willing to hear El Cajon's arguments in favor of a move to that "center of population."

Chairman of the meeting Ray Grable said there were two matters before the Citizens' Committee: 1—Appraisal of the district's property and building in La Mesa and 2—Selection of an architect.

Chairman Grable, who has been in the real estate business hereabouts for many years, announced that as far as he was concerned there is only one appraiser in this section and named L. Bruce Stallard, president of San Diego Realty Board, as that man. Other members of the committee granted that Mr. Stallard was very capable and Grable got Mr. Stallard on the phone, and reported that Stallard would not be available for 45 days, his fee would be $100 per day, and if requested by district directors would reserve that date for the job. It was so resolved.

The northeast corner of Civic Center has been offered as a site for the new building, 50,000 square feet of land required, and a price of not more than 20 cents a square foot to be paid. This offer was tentatively accepted by the city fathers, and was thought to have been settled until Si Cassidy broke out, or in.

At Tuesday's meeting of the water works board, El Cajon reps, who appeared in force, were asked to submit an offer. "Maybe they'll give us a free site."

The Citizens Advisory Committee seemed to agree with Chairman Grable's statement that 20 cents a square foot was very reasonable price. Grable said "12.20 would be nearer what it is worth." So unless El Cajon can come up with a proposition, it looks like La Mesa would retain the plum. Besides, we don't want to have to go to El Cajon every week.—D.H.

Jewelry Talk Given At Business Women's League Dinner

Mrs. James G. Oyler presided at her first meeting as the new president of the Lemon Grove Business Women's League. There were more than 30 members and guests present at Michael's for the dinner meeting. All of the various new committee chairmen were introduced and they in turn named their committees. From all indications we can expect big things from the organization this year.

The first meeting of each month, being the dinner meeting, will be the only meeting at which there will be a regular program. The program, introduced by Vice President Mrs. Ivan Lauritzen, was a talk by Sherburne Berry, manager of the North Park Jewelry store. He spoke on the history of diamonds and told some little known facts about them. Of great interest in the display he brought with him was a box containing replicas of all the famous diamonds of the world.

Five Million Dollar Bond Issue Sold

The $5,230,000 bond issue, authorized by the property owners in the L. M. L. G. and S. V. Irrigation District, was ordered sold to Blythe and Co. and associated at a board meeting on Tuesday last.

Blythe & Co. bid was for net interest rate of 3.9 per cent, just one-tenth of one per cent under the 4 per cent ceiling which had been placed on the issue by the California District Securities commission.

Bank of America also bid on the bond issue, with a net interest rate of 3.97 per cent. The bank used too sharp a pencil.

Gross interest cost was estimated at $5,929,711.28. With a premium offered by the bond buyers of $2,075, the net interest cost is reduced to $5,927,636.28. First redemption of bonds will be in 1966 and final redemption in 1996 (40 years away).

Interesting fact about this bond business is that the interest on the loan exceeds the amount approved by the voters by three quarters of a million dollars, making the total cost of the bonds about $11,000,000.

Now we know why the bankers are doing so well, building branches and spreading out - D.H.

Columnist Reviews The Local Paper

By BOB TURNBULL
Teenage Editor

After reading the many interesting articles, columns, stories, what have you in a recent REVIEW I know most of you readers came to a conclusion, summary or were spiced with new ideas. I know I was, and a brief revisit to some of the stories would show my thoughts wandering thusly:

Dimmer View editorial, which I agree with three fourths of the time (the other fourth I can't understand), was taken very well, especially by the Highlanders of Helix. The editor explained his disgust over the closing of the Murray Hills Road (the school road that goes over the hill to Helix from Lemon Grove) by the county road department. I know several of my Helix friends aren't too happy on having to go an extra mile a day in their cars. Instead of just buzzing their roadsters over the mountain mole they have to go to Massachusetts Blvd., then down to University Ave., then past Helix and up another quarter mile to the parking lot in back. When figured both ways that comes out to approximately one mile per day, five miles a week. And since the road is going to be closed from 60 to 90 days that means about 44 extra miles, since they will be out of school before the road opens again. At 10c per mile it will cost them around $4.50, which doesn't come like water out of a faucet to a teenager. That doesn't include the wear and tear on their cars they'll receive from our local cow-paths our mobiles have to tumble over. With about 29 days of school left you would think the road department would post a flagman, as suggested, so the students could cross over as per usual. Some people are just nuts!

Liked Floyd Hedrick's letter to the editor about all the Monterey Heights juvenile trouble being blamed on his business establishment. Reminds me of when our nation's last depression when all the people turned against President Hoover. Now they realize it wasn't his fault as much as the congress that supported him, or did they? Patience, Mr. Hedrick! It's easy for people to point the finger of accusation. It looks as though some immature adults in Monterey Heights are using the Monterey philosophy of guilty until proven innocent. Some people are sure nuts!

Enjoyed Mrs. Edward McLagan's letter to Helix High parents on the prom proceedings for Helix High this year. It was succinct and I hope opened the eyes of many stereotyped stuff-shirts who will take a more logical and lax outlook on high school prom night. We're not in the bustle and spats era any more, remember!

Was glad to read of our southern neighbors from Mexico who made their annual trek to Lemon Grove to visit the schools. Always nice for good neighbor policy and feelings of friendship. And of course this self-centered writer enjoyed "Throwin' the Bull," as usual. (Yes, I guess some people are just plain nuts!) Amen!

BIRDS ARE OUR FRIENDS

By SARA MAY

"Good dinner, Good dinner. Where's Birdie Boy's dinner? Kay, come here. Want my dinner." Then, "Kay, Baby, come here." Guess Patrick knows how to sweet talk and get attention plus.

Three year-old Patrick thinks he has to help Kay get dinner for Victor and Grandma. Sometimes he gets into things and finally Kay tells him (in fooling of course), "I'm going to whip you."

Then he heads for his own apartment on top of Grandma's dresser in her bedroom. You see, he and Grandma are real pals. Grandma called out to Kay, "What did you do to him?"

Patrick ruffled his chartruse feathers and then spent the next half hour sulking like a child who has been corrected. Grandma knew something was wrong. Kay said, "I had to get rid of him, so I shooed him with a dish towel."

When Kay walked into the room, Grandma asked Patrick, "Shall I whip her?"

Patrick said, "Grandma, whip her, whip her."

Now, Patrick really loves Kay, because she feeds him and cares for him every day, but sometimes Patrick gets mischievous. He knows when it's dinner time. Sometimes he must feel out of sorts, so to speak, as in disgust his comment is, "Taint fit to eat. Taint fit to eat." He knows he is wrong, as Kay is a fine cook.

Kay enjoys a quiet half hour with her paper and a cup of hot coffee. Yes, she really tries not to wake Patrick, who is in the other room. But perhaps he hears the coffee perking or smells the good aroma.

Soon a tiny, sleepy, "Peep, peep." Then Patrick joins Kay in the livingroom with a sleepy "Good morning."

The other morning Victor told Patrick, "Say 'Good Morning' to Kay."

Patrick must have been in a bad mood. Suddenly he bit Victor on the lip. It happened so quick that Victor gave him a brush off. He sure looked forlorn and flew in front of the mirror.

Over and over he kept saying, "Good morning" to himself, bobbing his head up and down prancing back and forth. He was just raising Cain.

Many times he waltzes 'round the dining room table, with plants or flowers on it and never touches a thing. But the kitchen table is a different story, because that is where he gets his good dinner. So Kay keeps a strict watch on him when he is near the kitchen table.

Once he ate a nibble of avocado. It made him very ill, and they really worried about him, as he is quite an important member of the family.

He tells Kay, "I'm so tired. Sleepy little bird."

Just about 5:00 p.m. every day Patrick is ready for bed. He cuddles up to Grandma and says, "I'm a sleepy little bird, Grandma. Are you sleepy?"

But the surprise comes when he asks you (like the three year old that he is), "Are you Victor's Grandma?"

Teachers' Salary Study Reports To Be Given School Board

Reports from both the classified employees and the teachers are listed on the agenda for the May 14 meeting of the Lemon Grove School Board. Salary committee chairman for each group will present studies for 1956-57 schedules to the board for consideration. At the same time the preliminary budget will be introduced. The meeting will begin at 5:30 p.m. at the Lemon Grove Education Center on Lincoln Street, adjourning at 6:30 for the dinner hour and convening again at 7:30. Other items listed for board consideration next Monday evening include consideration of the school's instrumental music program, the annual resolution for re-employment of regular certified and classified personnel, and reports on the Monterey Heights site development and the results of negotiations with the State Department of Finance.

He is survived by his mother who lives in the north part of California.

STATE BUILDING PROGRAM CALLS FOR INCREASED ARCHITECTURAL HELP

Specification writers at two levels are wanted by the state.

Specification writer II, paying $530 and up, requires four years of architectural or engineering experience including drafting, inspection, and at least two years in preparing specifications for major building construction.

The lower level job, which starts at $436, requires three years of the same type of experience. College graduation with a major in architecture or engineering is a requirement for both positions; however, additional qualifying experience may be substituted for the required education on a year-for-year basis.

Other state jobs are: Supervising women's parole officer (women only), $505-$613; instructor in typewriter repair (men only), $358-$556, depending on qualifications; savings and loan examiner II, $436-$530; and assistant valuation engineer, $436-$530.

Applications for chief psychiatrist, correctional facility, will be accepted. The position starts at $1,000 or $1,050 monthly, depending on professional qualifications.

Additional information may be obtained from the state employment office on Columbia Street.

Importance of world trade to Southern California is emphasized by the fact that imports and exports flowing through Los Angeles and Long Beach Harbors last year totaled $795 million in value.

THINGS DOIN' & BREWIN' About Civic Center
By DICK HENDERSON

Awarding of two service pins started the supervisors' meeting last Tuesday on a happy note.

Mrs. Wright, a county employee for 25 years, was presented by sheriff's chief deputy. The lady has been in sheriff's department for the past five years, and prior to that time had served on the hospital staff for 17 years.

Asked why she chose the sheriff's department, Mrs. Wright said "she knew that department had men in cages and she thought maybe she could get one." This brought laughter from those who heard her reply, and more when her remark was repeated for the benefit of the rest.

Miss Roma Cherry, whose father was a supervisor a long time ago, was presented by Delevan Dickson, county treasurer, who stated that Miss Cherry had been one of his most valuable employees, had served 30 years in his office. Miss Cherry was given a 30 year pin, with appropriate remarks by Chairman Bird, who presented the pins.

Hardy Drive Matter: The continued hearing on the Hardy Drive block-long paving matter was called and a revised estimate of cost by the road department was ready. Changes in materials resulted in a reduction of 24 per cent, or $377, in the cost. The telephone company reduced their estimate from $1800 to $299, which was included in the reduction.

Mrs. Coryell, one of the protesters, said she and her husband wanted the road improvements, but that they still could not stand the assessment.

None of the protesters withdrew their objections, and the total against the improvement still stands at 52%.

Chairman Bird, endeavoring to alleviate the sufferings of all parties, suggested that a final hearing be held in two weeks. Unless some of the protesters are withdrawn, the matter will have to go over for a year.

Rev. Phillip Bartlett spoke briefly on behalf of the church. He said that even with the reduced assessment the church budget would not stand the assessment.

Wm. F. Brawley spoke, but we could not hear him, and don't know if he was for or against. (If these speakers would name themselves and use the mike, it would be easier to hear what they say.)

John Coryell spoke briefly, but we couldn't hear him either.

On May 15, when the final hearing is held, we will know if the proposed road will be built. Meantime, the folks on both sides of Hardy Drive, now a private road and used by the public, can get together and decide what they want.

A suggestion: Let the protesters get together, write out their reasons, present same to the supervisors.

Those in favor of the improvement do the same. In that way the board will have something concrete to consider.

(This block of road is a mess at present. There are so many chuck holes to avoid that five miles per hour "speed" is dangerous to springs. This reporter drove over the block last week and was so occupied with dodging chuck holes that he could not take in the scenery on each side. Joe Mack insists that curbs are necessary to drain off the water.—D. H.)

It looks as though Helix finally shifted gears and re-instated themselves in the glory light and good graces of all sports following Highlanders with repeated victories in the various spring athletic battles.

Baseball: Last week on Monday the varsity diamonders defeated a loose alumni nine aggregation, 10-9. On Wednesday "Sandy" Thorpe pitched a four-hitter as Helix edged Chula Vista, 2-1 and on Friday, in a non-league encounter, Pt. Loma fell to the Highlanders, 6-3.
